

STUDY ETHNOMUSICOLOGY

AT THE UNIVERSITY
OF WÜRZBURG

BA in ETHNOMUSICOLOGY as a Minor Subject (60 ECTS)

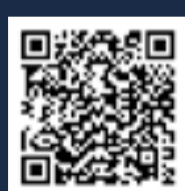

ETHNOMUSICOLOGY IN WÜRZBURG

Are you interested in the social significance of music? How globalization, media, migration, religion, and politics influence music-making? How people in diverse cultures learn, create, and express themselves in different styles? Are you excited to learn about and become involved in fieldwork and recording projects, work with musicians and communities, and engage with international students and scholars?

The BA in Ethnomusicology (60 ECTS) at the University of Würzburg encompasses:

- ❖ GLOBAL MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE
Explore musical systems, practices, and cultures from transcultural and global perspectives.
- ❖ THEORY
Engage with ethnomusicological and critical cultural theories. Understand music-making as cultural phenomenon and social process.
- ❖ APPLIED ETHNOMUSICOLOGY
Bridge theory and practice. Make academic work relevant to society.
- ❖ PERFORMANCE PRACTICE
Experience music-making in diverse local and global traditions.
- ❖ RESEARCH PROJECTS
Learn about field research, audiovisual recording, and applied methods. Gain experience with ethnographic and musical analysis.
- ❖ INTERDISCIPLINARITY
Select courses in musicology, music education, ethnology, sociology, museum studies, and various cultural, language, and area studies.
- ❖ INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION
Study and network with musicians and scholars from across the world.

HOME PAGE

www.musikwissenschaft.uni-wuerzburg.de/studium/studium-ethnomusikologie/

Tuition is free for all students!

APPLICATION FORM

Deadlines:
16/03 & 24/09 for German applicants
15/01 & 15/07 for International applicants

Proficiency is required in both English and German.

Institut für Musikforschung
Domerschulstraße 13
97070 Würzburg

Questions?

vorstand.musik@uni-wuerzburg.de cornelia.guenauer@uni-wuerzburg.de juniper.hill@uni-wuerzburg.de